CITY OF HAWAII WANTS THE DESMOINES PLAN

Des Moines Tribune.—Even the far off islands of the Pacific have heard of Des Moines and the success of the Des Moines plan of government, and now from the city of Hawaii in the Sandwich Islands, comes a request for a copy of the Des Moines charter.

Think of it! Only a few short years ago the natives of the Sandwich Islands were looked upon as barbarians. Their city government was in keeping with the monarchical form of rule which was in vogue in the entire group. But now they have fallen in line and under the rule of the best government on earth they have caught the spirit of western progress and are now improving their municipal form of government.

Superintendent John MacVicar, who left last night for Peoria, received a letter from the high mogul of the city of Hawaii, stating that the citizens there were agitating a change of city government.

Numerous plans had been considered, when a report of the success of the Des Moines plan reached their ears. They investigated it, and convinced that the commission plan was about the thing, they have started to look into it. The letter asks Mr. MacVicar for details and a copy of the Des Moines plan. Mr. MacVicar will forward the desired information immediately upon his return.
